ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

St Margaret's Anglican Parish Eltham acknowledges the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin nation as the traditional custodians of the land on which we worship. We commit to working for reconciliation and justice for First Peoples. Diversity and inclusivity are important to us at St Margaret's. Everyone is welcome here, regardless of race, gender, sexuality, or ability.

ABM PEW REFLECTIONS

St Paul tells us that 'all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God'. That means that those who follow God's Spirit are not just creations of the Creator but rather related to him in a profound and intimate way. Like Jesus, may we be able to discern the Spirit and follow so that we too may be numbered among God's children today and all days.

- To thee our morning song of praise, To thee our evening prayer we raise; Thee may our souls for evermore In lowly reverence adore.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Melanesia.

WORSHIP 26TH MAY 2024— HOLY TRINITY

SENTENCE

Christ Jesus came and preached peace to you all; through him we have access in the one Spirit to the Father. Ephesians 2.17–18

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Holy God,
faithful and unchanging:
enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth,
and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love,
that we may truly worship you,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Dendy House works

Hello Church community,

As of Friday 24th May, the Vestry will now also be the working office
whilst the works on Dendy House are underway.

I would be grateful if the church community no longer use the Vestry for meetings during this time. If you require to use the space at all please contact Rev Yvette.

Trinity Sunday: A Sonnet

By Malcolm Guite

In the Beginning, not in time or space,
But in the quick before both space and time,
In Life, in Love, in co-inherent Grace,
In three in one and one in three, in rhyme,
In music, in the whole creation story,
In His own image, His imagination,
The Triune Poet makes us for His glory,
And makes us each the other's inspiration.
He calls us out of darkness, chaos, chance,
To improvise a music of our own,
To sing the chord that calls us to the dance,
Three notes resounding from a single tone,
To sing the End in whom we all begin;
Our God beyond, beside us and within.

Hope 25

Hope 25 is an opportunity for us to share the hope that we have in Jesus.

It is an intentional season of sharing hope in Jesus for every parish and community in the Australian Anglican Church.

Melbourne Diocese are asking each parish to commit to doing (at least) one thing to help share the hope that we have in Jesus during this season.

They are not going to tell us what to do but will provide resources and support so that each parish can act locally and contextually, sharing the hope we have in Jesus in a way that best fits the context of us here at St Margarets .

This Sunday at the 8am and 10am services – it is hoped that the short promotional video can be shared.

I wonder what the Holy Spirit will help us fan into flames !

Peace and all good, Revd Yvette

St Margaret's Church Welcome Pack

Linda Mackenzie has had a great idea of us having our own welcome pack which will be given to visitors or left in the foyer for people to take. Therefore, we need to make sure that the current leaflets/ cards are up to date.

I would be grateful if the convenors of our groups could check the accuracy of the information found in their literature and amend if needed.

In addition, if your group does not have a leaflet and need help producing one, please let Linda know.

We would like the packs to be available by the end of May.

With thanks, The Communications Committee

Huge Thankyou—Flowers

One of those elements I love about our Anglican liturgical year is that each season has its own colour .

For those who were able to attend church for our Sunday Pentecost services (or watched on-line) could not escape noticing the red swathes of cloth adorning the lectern and altar.

However, what stood out for me were the beautiful flowers displayed in church by Angela Langan. They conjured up the image from our reading in the book of Acts - those tongues as of fire that rested on each of the disciples.

Thank you, Angela, from myself and the church for your ministry not forgetting of course Jan Kerr too !

“We need more young people !!!”

Do you think you are being called or drawn towards children’s and youth ministry here at St Margaret’s Church? And ...have capacity to act upon it??

The Diocese will be running the scratch program. If you are interested in attending, can you please speak with me, and we can discern together if these sessions are something you could embark on

Scratch program

From the diocesan Youth and Children’s Ministry team leaders

Scratch is an informed, practical, and hopeful project that works with vicars and key leaders to initiate children and young people ministry in their church. Most churches can’t afford a paid worker and find it difficult to recruit volunteers. They’re also acutely aware that the kind of ministry needed may need to look very different from previous models to accommodate the changing culture. Scratch is ADOM’s answer to this challenge. It’s designed to give you the insights, models, and confidence you need to develop a strategy that will work in your own parish context, however humble the beginning.

Scratch starts in June and runs over 6 sessions spread over 8 weeks and includes lunch.

Good News!

Part of being a church community /family is that we get to share our good news .

So let us congratulate Katheen Toal on becoming a great grandmother. Her grandson Joshua and his partner Charley had a baby girl on 16th May 2024.

Her name is Olive Ivy Spencer Long. Mother and baby doing well.

Annually National Week (NRW) occurs Reconciliation in Australia from 27 May to 3 June.

These dates commemorate two significant milestones in the reconciliation journey – the 1967 Referendum acknowledging Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, and the High Court Mabo decision, respectively. NRW is preceded by National Sorry Day on 26 May. The 2024 theme, 'Now More Than Ever', is a reminder to all Australians to continue the fight for justice and the rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

This prayer was written by Bishop Arthur Malcolm, taken from 'A Prayer Book for Australia'. I invite each one of us to commit to praying this prayer during this week.

*Lord God, bring us together as one,
Reconciled with you and with each other.*

You made us in your likeness.

You gave us your Son, Jesus Christ.

He has given us forgiveness from sin.

*Lord God, bring us together as one,
Different in culture, but given new life in Jesus Christ:
Together as your body, your church, your people.*

*Lord God, bring us together as one,
Reconciled, healed, forgiven,
Sharing you with others as you have called us to do.*

In Jesus Christ, let us be together as one.

Amen

Peace and all good

Rev. Yvette

Grace

Go before us, O Lord, in all our doings
with your most gracious favour,
and assist us with your continual help;
that in all works, begun, continued and ended in
you,
we may glorify your holy name,
and finally by your mercy
obtain everlasting life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
